"Roosevelt Dime's jubilant performances are a perpetual crowd pleaser in any setting." (NY Times). Eben Pariser fronts the band with searingly soulful vocals, belted and whispered with a passion and panache straight from the juke joints. Andrew Greens innovative piano-inspired banjo style, equal parts boogie woogie and bluegrass, lock in with the New Orleans clave rhythms of Tony Montalbanos drums and Craig Akins syncopated upright bass. Armed with original songs of hope, love, and conviction birthed from the cradle of American music, Roosevelt Dime has captivated serious listeners in quiet clubs, attracted rowdy revelers on the streets of NYC, and moved ecstatic dancers at the festival grounds on their current nationwide tour. They perform at St. Paul's along with Goodnight Moonshine with Molly Venter, who also sings with Red Molly!
